

Pavel Svirid

Junior Front end Developer

Profile

A cheerful, purposeful person. I try to lead an active lifestyle, I like team sports. I am demanding of myself, I can easily get acquainted with people, I know how to work in a team.

Working hard, I'm ready to go from an intern to a specialist who is ready to take complex projects and take personal responsibility for their implementation, to the management and the customer.

I am married and a father of two children.
